Arrival via Ho Chi Minh City Airport with shuttle service to Binh Duong New City.

Check-in at Becamex Hotel, Address: Hung Vuong Street, Hoa Phu Ward, Thu Dau Mot City
The Becamex Hotel is located opposite the Binh Duong Convention & Exhibition Center

From 08.00 Registration (Binh Duong Convention and Exhibition Center)

08.00-13.30 Optional Workshop: Agenda Setting (Binh Duong Convention & Exhibition Center)

How can Vietnam, leveraging its young talent and sustainable practices, employ AI to elevate its position in the global economy without compromising its cultural heritage?

The workshop presents a unique opportunity to introduce a groundbreaking concept – SyntAIgration – the synergy between Synergies and Integration, supported by Artificial Intelligence (AI), and aimed at creating cohesive solutions that revolutionize the way businesses, governments, and societies operate. The workshop aims at preparing an audience for their attendance at the Horasis Asia Meeting and fosters the ground for aligning and amplifying collaboration based on collective intelligence. Experts from across the globe are welcomed to share their expertise.

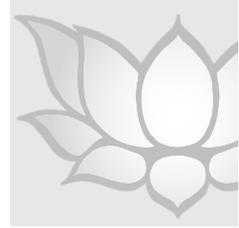

08.00-09.00 Joint Breakfast

09.00-12.30 Workshop

12.30-13.30 Joint lunch

Chaired by

- Constantin Malik, Co-Founder, J3d.ai Labs, Germany

- Yip Thy-Diep Ta, Co-Founder, J3d.ai Labs, Germany
- Kevin Varend, Co-founder, J3D.ai Labs, Germany

14.00–15.30 Update Sessions

Promoting Southeast Asia's Development Successes (Room G1)

The Vietnamese government has promoted changes to become a middle-income nation through only one generation: poverty rates have rapidly declined and GDP risen briskly. Similar growth has occurred through Southeast Asia. Can the policies, and the future strategies, be disseminated from Vietnam to the other nations? Which in particular? What role would ASEAN play in this general development plan?

- Ha Than, Chairman, Lac Viet Computing Corp., Vietnam
- Sailesh Purswani, President, Thai Martin Group, Thailand
- Teddy Tee, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Cashlez, Indonesia

Chaired by

- Bill Nguyen, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, ABS Institute, Vietnam

Nurturing Digitalization (Room G2)

The use of smart phones is increasing rapidly in Asia as governments promotes digitalization as a future planning goal. How can bankers, investors and government deploy coherent plans as they look for rapid take-up of digital currencies and integrated policies? How do app developers ensure they meet a wide approval from users? How to support those outside of Digitalization?

- Chris Gutierrez, Founder, StoreBloc, Vietnam
- Tran Hoang, Chairman, VietnamMarcom, Vietnam
- Shin Ito, Chief Executive Officer, iKoyoo Inc., Japan
- Krishna Rajagopal, Group Chief Executive Officer, AKATI Sekurity, Malaysia
- Tim Nguyen, Deputy Rector of 3AI, Institute of Applied Research & Innovation, Vietnam
- Hidetoshi Uchiyama, Chief Executive Officer, Unerry, Japan

Chaired by

- Pietro Borsano, Deputy Exec. Director, Chulalongkorn School of Integrated Innovation, Thailand

The Necessity of Asian Supply Chain Consolidation (Room G3)

Global economic disruptions have not negated the demand for the worldwide exchange of goods. Asian nations have been at the forefront of recent supply chain revitalization, but the new issues are nationalism and trade embargoes. How can governments and private firms cooperate more fluidly to ease any disruptions? How to raise the levels of trust needed in supply chains given the global unrest?

- Matthew Ho, Group Chief Executive Officer, Shopper360 Group, Malaysia
- Asif Iqbal, President, Indian Economic Trade Organization (IETO), Indi
- Bradley C. LaLonde, Managing Partner, Vietnam Partners, Vietnam
- Cao Dai Thang, Chairman & CEO, INTECH Group, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Mitesh Shah, Executive Director, MitKat Global Consuting, Singapore

Developing an Asian Clean Energy-Transition Roadmap (Room G4)

Notwithstanding the initial UN Accord of 2015, the annual COP meetings, and the many publications of the IEA, we remain unclear about how to reach the 2030 goals and the 2050 zero-carbon target. What should each nation, every firm and each person do to ensure a rapid zero-carbon outcome? How to stimulate responsibility for these programs? Who will take an actual lead to help guide Asian nations?

- Anthony Chan, Chairman, Gretchen, Hong Kong
- Tadaaki Kimura, Chief Executive Officer, Addlight, Japan
- Gopi Krishna Reddy, President, Afro International Technology for Societal Transformation, India
- Lusy Widowati, Founder, Tiga Daun, Indonesia

Chaired by

- Ruth P. Briones, Chair and Chief Executive Officer, Greenergy Solutions, The Philippines

Empowerment of Asian Women and Girls (Room G5)

The global SGD goals refer to inclusivity: it is not a universally accepted goal – some nations refuse to educate girls and that instantly removes their empowerment rights. How might we better guarantee positive benefits for women? What holds back educational and employment practices? What will give Asian females greater encouragement to be innovative and entrepreneurial?

- Yuki Aizawa, APAC Director, Women in Tech, Malaysia
- Sharon Lim, She Loves Tech, Chief Content Officer, Singapore
- Mabel Lu Miao, Founder & Secretary General, Global Young Leaders Dialogue (GYLD), China
- Quyen Nguyen, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Sharework, Vietnam
- Elisa S. Nuada, Managing Director, Blue Chip Global Development, The Philippines
- Siyi Ren, Co-founder, ZIADOO Biotech, Singapore
- Ai Sasaki, Chairperson, Asian Women Leaders Forum, Japan
- Claire Dung Tran, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Rayo, Vietnam
- Rupa Vasudevan, Chancellor, BEST Innovation University, India

Chaired by

- Zoe Yuan, Founder, Shanghai Zoe Wellness Edu&Tech Co., Singapore

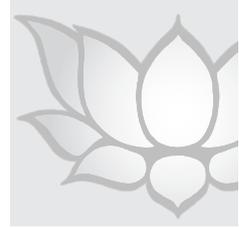

Asian Art: Identity and Globalization (Room G6)

Asian artists are actively addressing questions of identity, particularly concerning globalization. They delve into issues of cultural hybridity, diaspora, and how globalization affects regional customs and communities. How can Asian artists place themselves into a global context while paying homage to their cultural identity?

- Aurélie Carlet, Founder & Director, Zen House Gallery, Japan
- Dinh Q. Le, Artist, Vietnam
- Le Thien-Bao, Founder, Galerie BAQ, France
- Pham Phuong Cuc, Director, CUC Gallery, Vietnam
- Rexy Tseng, Artist, Taiwan

Chaired by

- Martin Schulze, Founder and Director, Public Delivery, Korea

15.30-16.30 Opening Plenary: Leading the Asian Renaissance (Auditorium)

Asian Governments are promoting private sector inclusive growth, education, environmental resilience and good governance: the results so far are positive. New, high-level plans are in place to lift the nations to a high-income status by mid-century. How will the global economic malaise affect these plans? Which nations will succeed best, and why? Where might pitfalls lie?

- Roger King, Founder and Chairman, ODS Holdings Inc., Hong Kong
- Mai An, Co-founder and President, IMT Solutions, Vietnam
- Ben Nelson, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Minerva Project, USA
- Vo Xuan Vinh, Professor, Ho Chi Minh City University of Economics, Vietnam
- Wang Huiyao, Founder, Center for China and Globalization; Former Counselor, China State Council, China

Chaired by

- Richard David Hames, Founding Director, The Asian Foresight Institute, Thailand

16.30-17.30 Plenary: Addressing the Climate Emergency (Auditorium)

This plenary session is part of the TCS-Horasis initiative 'Race to Zero'

Globally, pressures are increasing to mitigate climate change. There are other measures, such as displacement of cities or island nations to locations that are more secure. What are the global outcomes of such local actions? What effects will these actions have on local, national and global businesses and economies?

- Claude Béglié, Chairman, SymbioSwiss, Switzerland
- Tadahiro Kawada, President, Kawada Technologies, Japan
- Vivian Claire Liew, Founder and CEO, Climate Smart Investments, Singapore
- Vinh Quang Dang, Senior Private Sector Specialist, The World Bank, Vietnam
- Marjorie Yang, Chairman, Esquel Group, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Mohamed Irshad, Head of Corporate Affairs for ASEAN, TCS, Singapore

17.30-18.30 Plenary: Supporting the Reality of Asian Entrepreneurs (Auditorium)

Greater innovation may be realized by altering rules and regulation. It is more rapidly advanced by mentoring and knowing venture capital is available for start-ups. How are innovators and their entrepreneur hubs supported across Asian nations? Is any country doing better at nurturing entrepreneurs? How do they do this, and are their methods transferrable?

- Harry Hui, Founder and Managing Partner, ClearVue Partners, China
- Xiaoyin Qu, Founder, Run The World, USA
- Quynh Anh Nguyen, Managing Director, SwissEP, Vietnam
- Eddie Thai, General Partner, Ascend Vietnam Ventures, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Herbert Chen Wu, Managing Director, The Economist Global Business Review, China

18.30-19.20 Welcome Reception (Foyer)

Horasis, Becamex and Binh Duong Province welcome participants to celebrate the eighth Horasis Asia Meeting. Participants will enjoy a prodigious reception at the Binh Duong Convention and Exhibition Center.

Chaired by

- Vo Van Minh, Chairman, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam
- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland

19.20 Walk back to the Becamex Hotel

19.30-21.30 Welcome Dinner: Vietnam's Flourishing Development (Becamex Hotel)

Vietnam has grown rapidly and looks for a future of high growth, and a high urbanization rate. Vietnam will develop its relatively small population to embrace its desired economic revolution. Meanwhile, what deepening cooperation across South-East Asia will enhance the quality of life in Vietnam and across ASEAN? What are the positive indicators?

- Vo Van Minh, Chairman, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam

Monday, December 4, 2023

From 07.00 Registration

07.30-08.45 Breakfast Sessions

The Next Big Trend: Asian Impact Investing (Room G2)

As Asian firms mature and approach the financial markets for recapitalizing there are opportunities for impact investors. How to generate sustained and blended value? How can impact investing change Asia's economic and social fabric? And how to inspire investors to transit from theory to practice fostering opportunities for action?

- Benedict Co, Managing Partner, Mackay Group of Companies, The Philippines
- Tadahiro Kaneko, Deputy Head of Sustainability, Sumitomo Mitsui Financial Group, Japan
- Eddie Thai, General Partner, Ascend Vietnam Ventures, Vietnam
- Hao Tran, Chief Executive Officer, VietCetera, Vietnam
- Bryan Yang, Managing Director, Inspiration Inc., China

Chaired by

- Marko Kasic, Founder, FundLife International, The Philippines

Asia's Great Expectations of AI as an Everyday Tool (Room G3)

The developers of AI assistance have offered much and there are many AI app successes. But we are realizing that AI systems' learning based on unsupervised data trawling yields dangerously biased results. How to ensure that AI developers are beholden to human-aligned rules? Without being too hesitant, how do we advance AI development and testing? Where is the fastest AI development – in Asia, Europe or the Americas?

- An Le, Chief Executive Officer, NFQ, Vietnam
- Yean Lee Chong, Head of Strategic Partnerships, Lexasure Financial Group, Singapore
- Takeshi Izuka, President, Peer Learning Hub Japan
- Mai An, Co-founder and President, IMT Solutions, Vietnam

- Nuttakorn Rattanachaisit, Founder & Managing Director, Predictive, Thailand
- Stanley Wang, Founder, Illuminati Technologies, Thailand

Chaired by

- Kevin Varend, Co-founder, J3D.ai Labs, Germany

Point Disruptions with Long-term Asian Effects (Room G4)

Local events sometimes erupt and cause many disruptions, then all services become overwhelmed. Recently we have seen the global finance system destabilized post-COVID, developing potentially into a worldwide recession. How might Asian regions, nations and their local businesses establish resilience? How to bolster public/private ventures to resist black swan events? What is the role of ASEAN across southeast Asian to reduce economic contagion?

- Nobumitsu Akai, Director, JFR Group, Japan
- Mayra Andrea, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Cipta Graha Holding, Indonesia
- Sean Noga, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Unizen, USA
- David Smith, Chief Executive Officer, Zanstrasat, USA
- Brian Wong, Chief Strategy Officer, Hong Kong-ASEAN Foundation, Hong Kong

Chaired by

- Francis Schortgen, Associate Dean of Faculty, University of Utah Asia Campus, Korea

Family-owned Businesses: Propelling Asia's Growth (Room G5)

Businesses in Asia were traditionally family owned and managed in a close-knit grouping. Yet, many are currently undergoing a pivotal shift, going through a generational change in the coming years. How can Asian family-owned businesses build sustainable businesses for inter-generational transfer? How to nurture heirs? And how does the nature of Asian family-owned businesses alter as they invest overseas?

- Sumedha Goel, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Texcent, Singapore
- Li Zhongtao, Chief Executive Officer, Capsio Technology Co., China
- Lionel Lee, Chair, The Better Foundation, Singapore
- Rosauro Angelo Rodriguez, Founder, PAD1925, Inc., The Philippines
- Veronica Shim, Founder, E-Alliance, Singapore
- Shuichi Terashima, Founder, TMC Worldnetwork, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Becky Wong, Chief Executive Officer, Globex Capital Partners, Hong Kong SAR

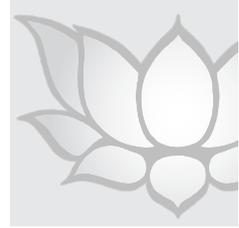

Asian Blockchain Use is Alive, Well and Developing (Room G6)

Despite the Bitcoin exchange debacle its underpinning device, Blockchain, continues to develop into new markets – although it has its own development issues, such as scalability, interoperability and a high energy consumption. How do 'smart-contracts' develop Asian trade? In the business flux across Asia, how well have Blockchains developed commercial security?

- Jarrold Luo, Director, Blockchain Industry Association, Singapore
- Mitchell Pham, Co-founder, CodeHQ, New Zealand
- Nimnual Piewthongngam, Founder, Gumpun Muaythai LTD, Thailand
- Allen Tang, Executive Director, Intsig Information Technology, Singapore

Chaired by

- Victor Guixer, Managing Partner, Guixer & Partners, Spain

09.00-09.45 Grand Opening: ASEAN, Driving Asia Forward (Auditorium) (Auditorium)

Initially, ten nations with many differing aims and drivers were brought together as ASEAN, focusing regionally upon social, political and economic stability to bond its cultural intersections. Following on, several associations developed, aimed at greater trade and harmony, such as RECP and the CPTPP. What is the core of the ASEAN Way and will it progress accords for better Asian-Pacific trade? What are the outstanding issues across Asia?

- Tran Luu Quang, Member of the Party Central Committee, Deputy Prime Minister, Vietnam
- Vo Van Minh, Chairman, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam
- John Jung, Chairman and Co-founder, Intelligent Community Forum, Canada
- Frank Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland

Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, with the co-hosts and co-organizers

- Tran Luu Quang, Member of the Party Central Committee, Deputy Prime Minister, Vietnam

- Nguyen Van Hung, Chairman, Becamex IDC, Vietnam
- John Jung, Chairman and Co-founder, Intelligent Community Forum, Canada
- Frank Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland
- Murat Seitnepesov, Chairman, Integral Group, Switzerland

09.45-10.45 Plenary: Asian Economic Outlook (Auditorium)

Despite global economic pressure and structural distortions, Asia continues to strive. National and international value chains are reconnecting. Many Asian nations have proposed strong development plans to boost their local commercial and social infrastructures. What is the broad Asian outlook and how are Asian nations resolving economic uncertainties? What are the future difficulties to be overcome by short- and long-term means?

- Van Dang, Chief Executive Officer, Savvycom, Vietnam
- John Jung, Chairman and Co-founder, Intelligent Community Forum, Canada
- Don Lam, Chief Executive Officer and Founding Partner, VinaCapital, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Cuong Dang, Partner and Chief Executive Officer, Forbes Vietnam, Vietnam

10.45-11.00 Contact Break

11.00-12.30 Boardroom Dialogue Sessions

Developing Asian Organizational Culture from the Top (Room G2)

Organizational cultures matter within Asian M&A activity: internationally they matter even more so. How often does the Asian C-Suite conduct self-analysis to understand and develop its leadership style? Will this help Boards to assess future demands such as ESG requirements as they specifically apply in Asia? How do the board members assess overseas partners with widely differing cultural expectations?

- Connie D. M. Allsopp, Founder, The World's Registrar, Canada
- Bernhard Bauhofer, Founder and Managing Partner, Sparring Partners, Switzerland
- Emil Kaburuan, Founder, KOMPIS Creative Solutions, Indonesia

Chaired by

- John Blakey, Founder, The Trusted Executive Foundation, United Kingdom

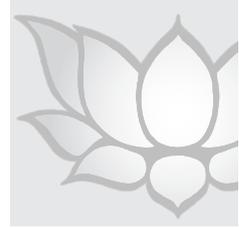

Nurturing Asia's Tech Talent Ought to be a Clear Aim (Room G3)

Several building blocks need to be in place in each country – good education in STEM subjects, firms induced to digitize, capital made available for development and clear-sighted leaders nurtured. What are Vietnam's and Asia's plans for developing its tech talent? How strongly will women be welcomed into these sectors? What specific ground-work needs to be further supported by government and by business?

- Shaoming Han, Dean of School of International Education, Yantai Institute of Technology, China
- Ngo Minh Duc, President, Eastern International University, Vietnam
- Alexander Wan, Advisor to Chairman, Pacific Century Group, Hong Kong

- John J. Ying, Managing Director, Peak Capital, Hong Kong

Chaired by

- Richard Rekhy, Member of the Board, KPMG, UAE

Intensifying Policies for Asian Industrial Production (Room G5)

Big questions concern the responsibility for stimulating new product manufacturing. Should this rest with Asian governments in the form of stimulus and grants, or industry investing before there is any government strategy? Is an interventionist government desirable, or are free marketing forces better? How to assess the number of years into the future to be adopted by these governments to promote novel world-class strategies?

- Martyn Anstey, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, REIMAGINEx | 528 Ventures, UK
- Nicholas Eng, President, Global Corp Capital, Singapore
- Duncan J. McCampbell, Associate Professor, Metropolitan State University, USA
- My Han Tran, Director, My Han Manufacturing Trading, Vietnam

- John West, Executive Director, Asian Century Institute, Australia

Chaired by

- Siddharth Poddar, Founder and Managing Editor, StoneBench, Singapore

Asia – United in Diversity (Room G6)

Asia is one of the most diverse regions in the world, with a dizzying array of cultural, linguistic, religious and ethnic heterogeneity. Asian nations also vary significantly in economic development and population size. What are the benefits of cultural pluralism in Asia? How to find a common goal to unite a culturally diverse continent? And how to turn diversity into a competitive advantage?

- Robin Nguyen, Founder, IBI Global, Vietnam
- Diana Sabrain, Co-founder, OneAgrix, Singapore

Chaired by

- Alejandro Reyes, Senior Fellow, Centre for Contemporary China and the World, University of Hong Kong, Hong Kong

14.30-16.00 Boardroom Dialogue Sessions

Managing Smart and Green City Development (Room G2)

As nations become wealthier its people often migrate to the cities. The Vietnamese and other Asian governments recognize this implies building smart cities. What are the best criteria for supporting its people from cradle to grave in their new cities? How will smart and green cities incorporate inclusivity, gender neutrality and wellbeing to fit people into the modern AI life-style? What inwards investment will also aid this urbanization?

- Jouko Ahvenainen, Founder and Chairman, Prifina, Monaco
- Cong-Thang Huynh, Co-founder, InnoLab Asia, Vietnam

- Pascal Scott, Director, M Health Limited, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Ananda Setiyo Ivannanto, Director, A-Wing Group, Indonesia

The Necessity for Asian Youth Employment (Room G4)

All firms need employees, especially well-educated staff able to think their way around problems, but most of the Asian economies are carrying an ageing population. How well have Asian governments invested in coherent educational policies for all? What will happen within nations with a large unemployable youth sector – how may they be aided? What may be the fate of nations that too slowly (or too quickly) embrace the automation of AI?

- Luis Maria R. Calingo, President, Holy Angel University, The Philippines
- Natasha Dukach, Executive Director & Co-Founder, Cash For Refugees, Ukraine
- Bharat Lal Meena, Co-founder and Chairman, BESTI University, India

- Akinori Seki, Professor, Tokyo Keizai University, Japan

Chaired by

- Rajiv Raghunath, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Wellversed Media, India

Asian Innovation Clusters (Room G5)

Cluster regions in Asia are closely packed with innovators and venture capitalists supporting meeting areas to exchange ideas and contracts: some are closely aligned overseas like Vietnam and South Korea. How will the concept of ‘the cluster’ change in the hybrid working post-COVID? Do we, as social beings, still need close, casual contact to innovate strongly? What is the New New Normal?

Robotization is the New Asian Reality (Room G6)

Industrial development segues naturally into robotization wherein computers, automation and autonomy work coherently, and the Internet of Things (IoT) with its massive interconnect ability is the new revolution. Meanwhile, Asia remains the world's largest industrial robot market. How are Asian nations setting itself up for the next stage of the robot revolution? And how is robotization going to reshape Asian labor forces?

- Steven Bai, Chief Executive Officer & Founder, Sencity, Australia
- Constantin Malik, Co-Founder, J3d.ai Labs, Germany
- Pham Phan Anh, Senior Automation Specialist, Mitsubishi Electric Vietnam, Vietnam
- Duong Quy Sy, Member of National Council, Education and HR Development, Vietnam

Special Session: Binh Duong – Innovation Forum, Accelerate Industrial 4.0 in Vietnam (Room G1)

Binh Duong Province, with a rich industrial history spanning over three decades, has positioned itself as a leading manufacturing hub in Asia. The Vietnam Singapore Industry 4.0 Innovation Center takes center stage in this revolution, aiming to support Binh Duong's manufacturers in staying technologically competitive and globally resilient. Joining this special session, you will also witness the official announcement of collaboration between Becamex, VSIP, Eastern International University and TÜV SÜD, which exemplifies the synergy needed to usher in a new era of manufacturing excellence.

- Andreas Hauser, Chief Executive Officer Digital Service, TÜV SÜD ASEAN, Singapore
- Alexius Oh, Vice Director, Vietnam Singapore Industry 4.0 Innovation Center, Eastern International University, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Dang Tan Duc, Director, Science and Technology Industrial Park Project, Vietnam

16.00-16.30 Contact Break

16.30-18.00 Boardroom Dialogue Sessions

Multi-national Management Across Asia (Room G2)

Presently many multi-national firms are headed by Asian staff; within each nation talents are seen to be formidable and innovative across Asia. How will easier cross-border flows of people, ideas and finance support Asia's innovation? If global inflation is reduced, will this induce stronger Asian growth?

- Greg Crichton, Managing Director, Greater Asian Advisors Limited, Hong Kong SAR
- Nara Lee, Managing Partner, Brainchild Partners, Korea
- Yoshiki Sasaki, Chief Executive Officer, Japan Strategic Capital, Japan
- Tomohiro Yamaguchi, Executive Director, Alternative Development Organization, Japan

Chaired by

Asian Entrepreneurs are Pioneering Change (Room G3)

The ramifications of COVID-19 are having lasting impact on entrepreneurship: both positive and negative. Those who choose to pivot will succeed whereas those who are hesitant will get disrupted. How to transform tough economic challenges into entrepreneurial opportunities? What are the beliefs, visions, and tactics of the post-COVID generation of Asian entrepreneurs and their global counterparts?

- Bernardino C. Custorio, Chief Executive Officer, BCXPRESS BMCS, The Philippines
- Megan Jing Li, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Shanghai iMega Industry Co., China

Investing in ASEAN (Room G4)

ASEAN is a convenient focus for 'Factory Asia' embracing the many nations intercommunicating with semi-finished goods being assembled for global sales. How does ASEAN support and develop trades, services and investment for the benefit of its members and by association, with global businesses? What are its potential bottlenecks? In particular how might investing in Vietnam be supported?

- Warrick A. Cleine, Managing Partner, KPMG in Vietnam and Cambodia, Vietnam
- Kyle J Hong, Founder, Alcove Investment Management, Korea
- Daniel Koppelkamm, Managing Partner, Convergence Partners, Switzerland
- Loan Ma, Chief Executive Officer, Auxesia Holdings, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Thai Linh Huynh Dinh, CEO, World Trade Center Binh Duong New City, Vietnam

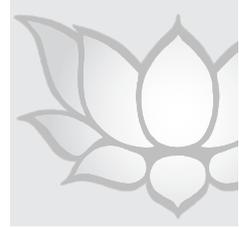

Focusing on the Asian Business Benefits of Net-Zero (Room G5)

Presently politicians, business leaders and the public seem to agree that all pollution must be halted. But the global economic unrest is causing many Asian leaders to hoard their fossil fuels and nurture suppliers - how to entice leaders into better behavior? How to more clearly integrate Asian business processes to reduce total pollution and waste – and to ensure net-zero calculations are correct? What are the true limits of the 'cradle to grave' recycling concept?

- Claire Chen, President of Asia-Pacific, The Rob Rockefeller S.C., USA

ESG as a Global Business Game-changer (Room G6)

ESGs will be the trigger point to stimulate businesses looking towards climate change as an opportunity. The ESGs will support small-time investors and thus green pension funds. Which element of ESG might become the most important? And, as climate change mitigation rises in importance, how to ensure the best ideas are supported? Will this be by government incentives or by innovative business ventures?

- Sebright Chen, Chairman and CEO, Summer Atlantic Capital, USA
- Ho Thi Thu Hoa, Director, Vietnam Research and Development Institute, Vietnam
- Le Hung Cuong, Chief Digital Officer, FPT Digital, Vietnam
- John Liu, Chief Executive Officer, HAN Capital, China

19.00 Walk to the Becamex Hotel

19.15-22.00 Closing Dinner: Integrating Asian-wide Policy Decisions (Becamex Hotel)

There are complex challenges facing Asian policymakers – not only across their banking and finance sectors, but in term of their people’s social expectations. What laws and regulation change would free-up Asian development and generate greater cohesion? In contrast, what do individual government leaders want?

- Vo Van Minh, Chairman, Binh Duong Province, Vietnam
