Fighting Climate Change while Fueling Growth (Omikron 1)

While the global average air temperature has exceeded 1.5 °C of warming for the first time, we continue to use coal of which, India has a plentiful supply. How to reduce dependence on this dirty and cheap yet versatile source of energy, while continuing the Indian growth story? What can India & Greece learn from each other in balancing the fight against climate change with economic & social development?

- Pankaj Choudhary, Founder, Let's Do It India Foundation, India
- Cristian Citu, Co-founder and Chief Executive Officer, Qurator, Sweden
- Yolian Ivanov, Executive Director, The Collins Group, Bulgaria

The Greek Infrastructure for the Future (Omikron 2)

Greece occupies a central position as the bridge into Europe and it recognizes the need to facilitate the movement of goods and financial flows within itself and through its state: Greece hosts some of Europe's largest passenger ports. How are Greece's developments viewed within Europe? How well will they serve Indian firms in Greece or using the IMEEC (India-Middle East East-Europe Economic Corridor) to Europe? How does location and infrastructure development aid inwards investment?

- Elisabeth V. Eleftheriades, Partner, KG Law Firm, Greece
- Isabel Jiménez, Vice President, Global Infrastructure Finance & Development Authority, USA
- Andreas Nick, Partner, Brunswick Group; Former Member of the German Bundestag, Germany
- Thanos Niforos, Founder, Acacia Investor Relations, Greece

Chaired by

- Theofanis Kofidis, President, EANOS, Greece

The Long Bi-Lateral Journey: India and Greece (VIP)

Greek merchants created trading houses in Bengal from the 18th century and modern diplomatic relations began following India's independence. Greece exports to India are increasing, yet there is a net deficit with India increasing its Greek trade by 68% in 2020. Presently, there is growing emphasis on joint investments into shipping, high tech and services. Each nation has much to offer the other – how might their cooperation evolve?

- Parag Amin, Chief Mentor and Founding Director, iCreate, India
- Anna Kamaridis, Vice President, Kamaridis GlobalWire Group, Greece
- Riccardo Lambiris, Partner, Falcon Capital, Greece
- Arvind Uppal, Chairman, Whirlpool India, India

- Yannis Alexis Zepos, Vice Chairman, Global Visa Center World (GVCW), Greece

Chaired by

- Asif Iqbal, President, Indian Economic Trade Organization (IETO), India

Managing Supply Chains post-COVID (Omega)

Supply Chains are a necessity of modern business. They were nurtured by Greek maritime firms over several decades prior to COVID when they were disrupted. Now, post-COVID they are being reconstructed, but there are still novel pinch points to negotiate. How to assess the real efficiencies of using a global supply chain instead of local supply if it existed? How to use decentralized blockchains to help manage supply chains? How would Indian and Greek firms view these ideas?

- Girish Bhagat, Chairman, Saleri India, India
- Anita Gupta, Senior Vice President, DHL, Germany
- Bhimaraya Metri, Director, Indian Institute of Management Nagpur, India
- Nicolas Michelon, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Asia Intelligence Advisory, France
- Tasos Oureilidis, Chief Executive Officer, Xenios Blockchain Group, Greece
- Anuj K. Singla, Founder & Managing Director, Advent Oilfield Services, India

Chaired by

- Wolfgang Lehmacher, Operating Partner, Anchor Group, Hong Kong SAR

Deepening India's Transformation (Lamda)

India is continuously progressing its transformations to develop its modernity. It is changing its infrastructures, financial reforms and its science developing its economic progress. How will India continue and reinforce its efforts, now after the elections? Which transformations will begin first? How can Government at National and State level cooperate to deepen India's transformation?

- Alexander Athanassoulas, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Stirixis, Greece
- Abhishek Kulkarni, Chairman, Urbane Jets Aviation, India
- Niyatee Shinde, Managing Director, TurmericEarth Art Projects, India

Chaired by

- Siddhaant Mohta, Consultant, Dentons, India

15.30-16.30 Opening Plenary: India Blossoms after its Elections (Ballroom)

Having held massive elections, the new Government is set to reinvigorate India's growth at home and abroad. Its diverse 1.4 billion population is being guided to be the world's third largest economy. How will its government develop its youth, women, farmers, accelerate rural development and alleviate the issues affecting the poor? What role will education, manufacturing, innovations and R&D have in this? How can Europe – and Greece in particular – become an effective partner in this?

- Vineet Agarwal, Managing Director, Transport Corporation of India, India
- Kostas Fragogiannis, Deputy Minister of Foreign Affairs, Greece
- Fokion Karavias, Chief Executive Officer, Eurobank, Greece
- Rajive Kaul, Chairman, Nicco Group, India

Chaired by

- Pranjal Sharma, Contributing Editor, Business Standard, India

16.30-17.00 Contact Break

17.00-18.00 Plenary: Coherent Technological Growth Needs Vision (Ballroom)

A greater technological presence will exist in our futures – and Greece and India are looking ahead. Their history of education, innovation and entrepreneurship supports their visions of leveraging progress. How will they do this? What are their new business models that will develop a better public acceptance of AI solutions? What are the potential developments for best-verses suitable progress for each nation?

- Vineet Agarwal, Managing Director, Transport Corporation of India, India
- Spiro Pappas, Chairman, Atlas Iron, Australia
- Preetha Reddy, Vice Chairperson, Apollo Hospitals; Past President AIMA, India

Chaired by

- George Karayiannis, Managing Partner, Karayiannis Energy Law Consultancy, Greece

18.00-19.00 Plenary: Towards a Clearer Implementation of ESG (Ballroom)

This plenary session is part of the TCS-Horasis initiative ‘Race to Zero’

Last year saw new EGS regulations across the globe: onwards these will be consolidated with greater emphasis reporting on transparency and on diversity, equity and inclusion. How will Indian and EU firms meet the challenges of climate change within the ESG frameworks? And importantly in an aging society, how will ESG actions protect pension funds?

- Dionysia-Theodora Avgerinopoulou, Prime Minister’s Envoy for the Ocean, Greece
- Aditi Haldar, Director, Global Reporting Initiative, India
- Nasser Munjee, Chairman, Tata Motor Finance, India
- Rupa Vasudevan, Chancellor, BEST Innovation University, India

Chaired by

- Hemakiran Gupta, Global Head, Sustainability Practice, TCS, Belgium

19.00-22.00 Opening Dinner: India & Greece: Reaffirming 75 years of Joint Relations (Ballroom 2)

Greece and India are celebrating 75 years of diplomatic relations through new trade agreements, especially in renewable energy programmes, the development of circular economic projects, and hi-tech ventures. How might the present trade and commercial accords be extended, into what fields? What grants and initiatives would attract further entrepreneurial exchanges? Would agreeing the EU/India trade accord aid Greek development with new Indian ventures?

- Dionysia-Theodora Avgerinopoulou, Prime Minister’s Envoy for the Ocean, Greece

Chaired by

- Pranjal Sharma, Contributing Editor, Business Standard, India

- Benjamin J Butler, Writer, Futurist, and Philosopher, United Kingdom

08.00-09.30 Morning Sessions

Judging the Applications of AI (Omikron 1)

Many media are suggesting that we are entering the decade of almost universal AI; others advise prudence, to only apply AI in discrete situations. Should global AI developers accept and uphold a code, like doctors? What is the position in India and Greece towards rapid AI application? Do we understand AI sufficiently well to apply rules as to its application and development?

- Ashish Kumar Gupta, Chief Growth Officer, HCLTech, United Kingdom
- Ani Chahal Honan, Founder, Yunity, USA
- Santosh Yellajosula, Co-founder, Pexu AI, UAE

Chaired by

- Nikolaos Mavridis, Startup Mentor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), USA

The Positive Gen-Z Cohort (Omikron 2)

Gen-Z has very little appetite to join establishment organizations. They have scant regards for organizational protocols and culture, have little job loyalty, and they shock staff at work with their relationship attitudes. However, the Indian Gen-Zs know they can only achieve through being financially savvy. What is motivating the Gen-Z? How to make the digitally savvy Gen-Zers partners to the establishment – what has to change? What can we learn from the Indian and Greek cultural context where Gen-Z's operate?

- Shruti Chandra, Vice President, Invest India, India
- Erifili Gounari, Founder & Chief Executive Officer, The Z Link, United Kingdom
- Aavrutti Sharma, Director, Only Women, India
- Swaneet Singh, Founder, Eros Invest, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Ann D'Silva, Author & Social Change Activist, Türkiye

Diversity and Inclusion Demands Board-level Diversity (VIP)

Successful organizations and institutions reflect the diversity of the ecosystem they operate within. Today there is a vast gender and generational imbalance in leadership positions – in Indian management there are only 18% women, in Greece 37%. How can diversity be improved while preserving merits? What systemic & mindset changes are needed in the corporate world and political arena? Can we better define the unique proven qualities and benefits female & new generation leaders bring to the table so redefine all recruitment selection processes?

- Ameena Ali, Founder, Federation of International Gender and Human Rights, USA
- Vanitha Datla, Managing Director, Elico Healthcare Services, India
- Christine Heinze, Advisory Board Member, Bunton, Germany
- Vidyottama Sharma, Founder & Chief Executive Officer, Only Women, India
- Brahmidevi Swamiji, President, Satguru Foundation, India
- Maria Tsiadi, Chief Executive Officer, Impacta Consulting, Greece
- Deepa Gopalan Wadhwa, Former Indian Ambassador to Japan, and Qatar, India

Chaired by

- Sushma Morthania, Founder and President, Women Entrepreneurs Forum, India

Mastering the Digital Transformation (Omega)

Greek and Indian start-up firms through their hi-tech innovation show how to overcome Digital Transformation (DX) resistance. How does DX benefit trade fluidity and transparency? How do incumbent Indian firms also support these transformations? How to embed technologies across businesses to master DX in order to drive fundamental change?

- Murali Bukkapatnam, Chief Executive Officer & Founder, Volksy, India
- Harsha Marigowda, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, mVerve, India
- Rohit Jain, Chief Information Officer, Harvard Business School (HBS) Alumni, USA
- Rishi Mehra, Chief Executive Officer, Wishfin, India
- Thanos Mitrelias, Chairman, Cambridge BioMagnetics, United Kingdom

Chaired by

- Kim Andrews, President, Nova Cash Flow Finance, Australia

09.30-10.30 Plenary: India, Greece and the World Economic Outlook (Ballroom)

The perturbations following the financial management of the pandemic continue to depress global economics, though inflation is being reduced and there is capital awaiting deployment. Volatility remains high due to ongoing live wars. Will the eastern economies, especially Indian, rise more than western ones into 2025? What are the geopolitical challenges facing Greece as policy makers set long-term productivity targets? What changes will the US elections yield, no matter their outcome?

- Tasos Anastasatos, Chief Economist, Eurobank, Greece
- Dimitri Avramopoulos, Former EU Commissioner, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Greece
- Shishir Priyadarshi, President, Chintan Research Foundation, India
- Anil Wadhwa, Former Secretary, Ministry of External Affairs; India

Chaired by

- Jessica Kantor, Journalist and Director of Communications, USA

10.30-11.00 Tamil Nadu – India’s Engine of Growth (Ballroom)

Tamil Nadu has the second largest economy of a State in India, targeting double digit growth rates and making it India’s ideal investment destination. Digitalization in particular has been leading to employment generation and enhanced economic development. What digitalization strategies worked for Tamil Nadu? And how is the state competing to attract new investments?

- Palanivel Thiaga Rajan, Minister for Information Technology & Digital Services, Government of Tamil Nadu, India

Chaired by

- Litsa Panayotopoulou, Treasurer, American-Hellenic Chamber of Greece, Greece, Greece

11.00-12.30 Dialogue Sessions

Greece and Sustainable Tourism (Omikron 1)

Greece has become one of the top travel destinations in the world providing comprehensive options all year round. In common with many nations across the world, Greece has joined ISTO (International Social Tourism Organization) in a bid to provide sustainable tourism linked with other forms of tourism – such as health and wellness. How has the ancient island of Rhodes opened to Indian tourism? What makes Rhodes such a good place for wellness and film making? How well might the ‘Rhodes model’ transfer across Greece and into other nations which are overwhelmed by tourists?

- Stylios Bekiras, Commercial Manager Greece, Air Arabia, Greece
- Anastasios Konstantaros, Chief Executive Officer, Rhodes Tourism Board, Greece
- Stelios Mantzaris, President, The Lemnos’ Friends of ANZAC Association, Greece
- Bindeshwari Prasad, Executive Director, Axplore Travel, Greece
- Shaline Serpes, Director, Holiday Crafters, India

Chaired by

- Kavaliros Nikolaos, Managing Partner, WOTF Group, Greece

Greece-Cyprus: Gateways of India to Europe (Omikron 2)

International development plans of globalizing firms often include building-out a regional HQ – and the Indian government plans to export its increased manufacturing capability. Greece offers green-field operations to new Indian ventures with its large land mass and low labor costs, while nearby Cyprus offers tax and other benefits: both are within the EU. How are Indian firms taking up this idea of a new gateway between India and Europe? What easements in Greece and Cyprus would support Indian ventures?

- Motaher Chowdhury, Head of India Desk, Elias Neocleous & CO, Cyprus
- Demetris Eliades, Senior Manager, International Business Banking, Eurobank Cyprus, Cyprus
- Samrendra Mohan Kumar, Co-founder and Managing Director, MitKat Advisory, India

Chaired by

- Foivos Karzis, Journalist, Greece

Developing a Vibrant SME Sector (VIP)

Small and medium enterprises (SMEs) in most economies comprise over 90 percent of all firms, and 50 percent of the labor. India's SME segment is going to be a driving force for the country's economic development in the years ahead. What are the best practices for SME development and sectoral business opportunities in both India and Greece? And how to build a new, stronger relationships between large and small enterprises?

- Anuj Chauhan, Founder, Yellow Sapphire Technologies, India
- Ramesh Datla, Chairman, Elico, India
- Petros Doukas, President, Capital Partners SA, Greece
- Vangelis Xigoros, President, Chambers of Peloponnese Region, Greece

Chaired by

- Vinod Kumar Wuthoo, President, India SME Forum, India

India as the World's New Growth Engine (Omega)

The modernization of the Indian education system developed many leaders of global firms, and thousands of managers and creative innovators in India itself. COVID, as everywhere, slowed India's progress, but now India is moving ahead: 7% GDP is expected by 2026. How are Indian CEOs coping with new and rapid changes? How are the innovators being financed and integrated into India's wider economy? Will these changes lead to India fronting global growth?

- Amit Jain, Co-founder, Ashika Global Family Office, India
- Kalpna Rane, Features Editor, Dainik Saamana, India
- Fabian Tan, Director, Asia Bridge Connections, Singapore
- Jacques Tourel, Chairman, World Trade Center Warsaw, Poland

Chaired by

- Vijay Sambamurthi, Founder and Managing Partner, Lexygen, Singapore

The Hidden Influence of India's Diaspora (Lamda)

Many globally large firms have Indian CEOs; and there is a strong Indian diaspora in Greece and elsewhere in Europe. How have overseas Indians guided European futures trajectory? How do the overseas Indians guide Indian education for technology, commerce and the arts? What would this diaspora hope for in India post-election?

- Christophe Eck, Partner, Gide Loyrette Nouel, France
- Almas Jiwani, Chief Executive Officer, Almas Jiwani Foundation, Canada
- Indronil Sengupta, Chief Executive Officer, Invesify, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Jessica Kantor, Journalist and Director of Communications, USA

Education: Spearheading the Future (Epsilon)

Education systems in India, Greece and the world are being made ready for the next wave of economic growth. How will India in particular achieve the needed upskilling to lift the country's economy? In what areas can governments, academia and the private sector collaborate to deliver the next generation of business leaders? What is the role that wisdom should play in education – and can India harness its ancient heritage along with technology to become an education superpower?

14.30-16.00 Dialogue Sessions

Investing in Greece (Omikron 1)

For the past decade FDI into Greece has grown, quickening further in the last year by 50%. Most investments were from the EU, but China, Canada and the US have strengthened their positions in the services sector – and being a bridge into Europe is helpful. How might it increase its attractiveness for life sciences, engineering, new materials and environmental technology? What is most attractive to Indian investors? What entry mode would Indian firms prefer?

- Dimosthenis Manginas, Managing Director, Manginas & Associates, Greece
- Notis Sardelas, Managing Partner, Sardelas Petsa Law Firm, Greece
