Tuesday, 19 November 2024

From 08.00 Registration at Dubai Exhibition Centre, with coffee on arrival

09.00-09.10 Welcome (Horasis Auditorium)

Horasis and DP World welcome participants to the 9th annual Horasis Asia Meeting, presenting an overview of the summit. Dubai is the world's emerging logistics, commercial and cultural hub. How to further link up Dubai with its trading partners, especially from Asia?

- Mike Bhaskaran, Group Chief Operating Officer, DP World, UAE
- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland

09.10-10.30 Plenary: Asia and World Economic Outlook (Horasis Auditorium)

Despite global economic pressure, structural distortions and geopolitical tensions, Asia continues to thrive. National and international value chains are reconnecting. What is the broad Asian outlook and how are Asian nations resolving economic uncertainties? What are the future difficulties to be overcome by short- and long-term means? What are the strengths of the Gulf region as a transport corridor?

- Nayef Alhajraf, Chairman, Capital Asset Management, former Secretary General Gulf Cooperation Council, former Minister of Finance, Kuwait
- Dimitri Avramopoulos, Former EU Commissioner, Former Minister of Foreign Affairs, Greece

10.10-10.30 Break (Foyer)

10.30-12.00 Sessions

AI is Upending Traditional Business Models (Room 1)

Across the political and commercial world AI is changing how we conceptualize their activities. And AI is producing novel processes within all sectors. How will AI aid Asia where businesses are looking for growth? How might we envisage the future of AI in Asia? What countries and companies are exemplary in the ethical development of AI?

- Adel Al-Falasi, Chief Executive Officer, UAE, Oliver Wyman, UAE
- Girish Bhagat, India Partner & Board Member, Benedetti & Co, Italy
- Jasper Cao, President, Wisetrade Inc, China

- Vincent Zheng, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Unian Brands Group, China

Chaired by

- Srikar Reddy, Executive Vice Chairman, Sonata Software, India

Digitalization Supporting a Diminishing Workforce (Room 2)

It is suggested a talent shortage of 85 million people will occur by 2030 and the shortages will grow everywhere except in India, China, the Gulf region and some other Asian nations. How can businesses change their staffing to cope? How can governments help? How will greater digitalization and robotization help?

- Bernhard Bauhofer, Founder and Managing Partner, Sparring Partners, Switzerland
- Aparupa Chakravarti, Director, Botho Emerging Markets Group, Kenya
- Joshua Haarbrink, Founding Member, Loci, USA
- Joe Honan, Co-Founder & Chief Executive Officer, ULedger, USA

Chaired by

- Atul Temurnikar, Executive Chairman, Global Schools Foundation, Singapore

Publicizing Climate Change Transition's Successes (Room 3)

The global weather is presenting more and deeper catastrophes with floods, famines and fires. Many cry out about climate change and say nothing is succeeding. How can we present positive news about working, at-scale, beneficial changes? Who is leading these changes? How quickly might populous India and China transition away from fossil fuel use?

- Mahmoud AlBurai, Founder, Middle East SDG's Academy, UAE
- Simona Ceci, Partner, E4Revive, USA
- Priscilla Clarke, President, Clarke & Associates, USA
- Paul Clements-Hunt, Chief Executive Officer, The Blended Capital Group, United Kingdom

12.00-13.00 Lunch break (Foyer)

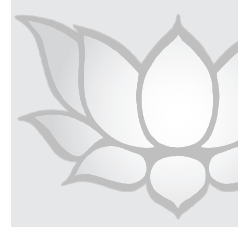

13.00-14.00 Plenary: Value Enhancements from Supply Chains (Horasis Auditorium)

Ships carrying 20,000 containers from Asia, or 2 million barrels of oil from the Gulf plying the globe are outstanding, and so are the many short-sea transhippers. Their supply chains bring together individual items and help join these within a value structure that brings the world together to support humanity. How can their routes be made safer? And how can the routes for all commodities be made transparent and fully insured against natural disasters? How are the various pinch-points between Asia and the Gulf being alleviated?

- Claude Béglé, Chairman, SymbioSwiss, Switzerland
- Manoj Gursahani, Co-founder, Vera Healthcare Technologies, India
- Roger King, Founder and Chairman, ODS Holdings Inc., Hong Kong
- Murat Seitnepesov, President, Greater Caspian Association, Switzerland
- Veronica Shim, Founder, E-Alliance, Singapore

Chaired by

- Oscar Wendel, Editor-at-Large, MEA Finance Magazine, UAE

14.00-15.30 Sessions

Boosting Entrepreneurship (Room 1)

China, India and Southeast Asia are demonstrating how innovators can access venture capital and the inventors become fully fledged entrepreneurs. How might their regulations be changed to support entrepreneurs, yet protect the public from grifters? How might their emergent products be better evaluated so they are speedily scaled as a fully viable product? How to ensure Asian entrepreneurs develop as government officials would wish?

- Ankit Anand, Founding Partner, Riceberg Ventures, Switzerland
- Seamon Chan, Founding Partner, Palm Drive Capital, USA
- Alberto Furger, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Amara Holding, Indonesia
- Ralf Hirt, Founder, CovQ, USA

- Mustafa Saasa, Chairman, Raj Group of Companies, UAE

Chaired by

- Richard Rekhy, Vice Chair, Grant Thornton India, India

Embedding the Gulf's Nations in Global Value Chains (Room 2)

The Gulf's transport hubs portray themselves as being at the center of the globe, and given they have abundant energy supplies and an educated labor force could they become assemblers of goods precisely fitted to onward buyers? What would it take to become a competitor to China, India and Southeast Asia as the assembly center of the world? What are the Gulf nations targets?

- Abdulaziz Albakr, Chairman, Arab Tank Terminals, Saudi Arabia
- Basim Anwer, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Regionality, UAE
- Rohit Dev, President, Ideas 91, UAE
- Ahmed Emara, Chairman, LSC, UAE

- Habib Paracha, Founder, CEO Centurion Entertainment, Pakistan
- Stefan Pichler, Former Chief Executive Officer, Royal Jordanian, Jordan

Chaired by

- Ebru Yarikkaya, Managing Director, ALYS Capital Partners, Türkiye

Using Blockchain more Broadly Across Asia (Room 3)

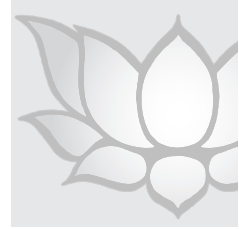

While Bitcoin and other digital coinage fluctuates in value the blockchain remains as designed – an unbreakable security chain, end-to-end along a supply chain. This ensures authenticity, even for small trading businesses. How can the advantages of digitalization be better explained to the millions of SMEs who provide the base of all production? How can governments rapidly open new trading platforms? And will all the actors along a supply chain agree to fully use blockchain?

- Parag Agarwal, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, JanaJal, UAE
- Dalton Grant, Chief Executive Officer, York Street Capital, Australia
- Eelco Fiore, Founder & Managing Partner, Alpha Governance Partners, Switzerland
- Atakan Karatas, Chief Legal Officer, Nigella, Türkiye

15.30-16.00 Break (Foyer)

16.00 -17.30 Sessions

Asia's Geocentric Future (Room 1)

The incorporation of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) in 2022 joined 14 Asian and Pacific nations representing 30% of the world's GDP looks to a strong future with 90% of its internal tariffs eliminated. How will RCEP affect global trades? How will their interregional links of trade and knowledge stimulate businesses in Africa, the Gulf, Europe and the US?

- Jouko Ahvenainen, Chairman, Mission Grey, USA
- Jarvovs Chen, Managing Director, Sinda Corporation, United Kingdom
- Roberto Dona, Professor, International Business School Suzhou, China

- Daniel Zaretsky, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Asia Central Advisory, Uzbekistan

Chaired by

- Francis Schortgen, Associate Dean of Faculty, University of Utah Asia Campus, Korea

The Burning Questions for the Circular Carbon Economy (Room 2)

This circular mode, proposed by the Gulf States, implies increasing use of carbon capturing technologies and the increasing use of renewable energy technologies. How are the Gulf States transitioning away from fossil fuels? How are they balancing the needed investment cost in their traditional industries against the development costs of new energy industries? How will the concept impact on Asia?

- Nobumitsu Akai, Director, JFR Group, Japan
- Hugo DesRosiers, Partner, E4Revive, UAE
- Fan Shaofeng, President, China Tianchen Gulf Engineering & Technology, China
- Kevin Harrison, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, BGI Capital Partners, United Kingdom

- Lusy Widowati, Founder, Tiga Daun, Indonesia

Chaired by

- Yip Thy-Diep Ta, Founder, J3d.ai Labs, Germany

Asian Family Businesses (Room 3)

Businesses were traditionally family owned, but over generations their management structure has altered as intergenerational changes created change. What is the future as perceived by Asian entrepreneurs? How do Gen-Zs differ across India, China, Japan, Southeast Asia and the Gulf region? Will their new differences alter business interactions across the region?

- John Blakey, Founder, The Trusted Executive Foundation, United Kingdom
- Alisher A. Djumanov, Founder and Managing Partner, AD Wealth, UAE
- Rob Garrett, Co-Founder & Managing Partner, Hezar Ventures, Singapore

Chaired by

- Parag Amin, Chief Mentor and Founding Director, iCreate, India

17.30-18.30 Plenary: Building Asia's Infrastructure with G2G Partnerships (Horasis Auditorium)

Government-to-Government (G2G) partnerships leverage government expertise to address the world's infrastructure challenges in sectors including ports, railways, and logistics. These collaborations provide advanced technical solutions, secure financial support from multilateral institutions, and implement train-the-trainer programs for long-term capacity building. What operational hurdles arise when integrating foreign technical expertise with local contractors? How can such programs ensure effective knowledge transfer and build long-term capacity in critical infrastructure sectors?

- Luis Castiglioni, Former Vice President of Paraguay, Paraguay
- Shisir Khanal, Former Minister of Education, Science and Technology of Nepal, Nepal
- Rosalía Arteaga Serrano, Former President of Ecuador, Ecuador
- Mahesh M Gandhi, President, AFII Capital, Germany

Chaired by

- Jennifer Nadel, Director of Compassionate Politics, CCARE, Stanford University, USA

18.30 - 19.30 Closing Plenary: Managing the Complexities of Change (Horasis Auditorium)

Asian entrepreneurs be they in large or small economies are facing time of rapid change. The global slowdown has modified inter-Asian trade, but so has the need for energy transition and the onset of AI-augmented decision making. As demographics alter rapidly what changes in regulations and attitudes will engender business growth? How can global leaders extend their hands in peaceful ways? How might Arab leaders join hands for cooperation?

- Royston Braganza, Chief Executive Officer, Grameen Capital, India
- Shan Li, Chairman, Silk Road Finance Corporation, China
- Nasser Munjee, Chairman, Tata Motor Finance, India
- Spiro Pappas, Chairman, Atlas Iron, Australia
