November 30, 2020 (Singapore time)

07.00-07.30 Mindful Breathing and Living for Leaders

Join other delegates to relax your brain with a mindfulness session. You need only to be present with a mindful breathing, because in the TRUE present there is no fear or stress. In unexpected stressful times such as this global pandemic, most people are experiencing fear, anxiety, stress or even loss of hope. To be mindful becomes more indispensable than in normal times; especially for global leaders whom the world requires more than ever. How is mindful leadership accomplished?

Conducted by

- Mei Chen, Founder, Cosmic Citizens, China

07.30-08.15 Horasis Community Building

Horasis is providing a matchmaking tool to connect with other delegates - each participant will be randomly matched with another to speak for 5 minutes by video, then become paired with another, and so on. It is hoped that these brainstorming links will unite delegates and initiate creativity to inspire the rest of the meeting time.

08.15-08.58 Digital Breakfast Sessions

Exemplary Leadership in Asia

Asian entrepreneurs often don't follow the rules - and achieved great success - how to absorb this attitude within a status quo which is now severely disrupted by COVID-19? And how do to steady the ship while embracing rapid change? What should we look for in our new leaders?

- David Darmawan, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Socentix, Indonesia
- Balwant Jain, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Optimum Solutions, Singapore
- Santosh Kaveti, Chairman and Founder, ProArch, USA
- Tieu Yen Trinh, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Talentnet, Vietnam
- Yan Liu, Co-Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Biocaptivate, USA

Chaired by

- Tsutomu Ishiai, Deputy Managing Editor, The Asahi Shimbun, Japan

Reducing Trade Friction between Asian Nations Post COVID-19

The trade liberalization agenda is under threat from anti-globalization forces and the massive disruption to supply chains by COVID. Government and business alignment are vital to sustain this agenda and to be the voice for progress in our communities. This should be enabled across the 15 members of the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP). Where are the stumbling blocks? Will the New US Administration be helpful or disruptive?

- Lee Cheng, Shareholder, Maschoff Brennan, USA
- Sashi Reddi, Managing Partner, SRI Capital, USA
- Henry Wang, President, Los Angeles China Investment Promotion Center, USA
- John West, Executive Director, Asian Century Institute, Australia
- Howard Wu, President, Can-Achieve, Canada

Chaired by

- Siddharth Poddar, Founder and Managing Editor, StoneBench, Singapore

Fin-Tech is Developing Rapidly in Asia despite COVID-19

In a bid to better unite enterprises, banks and their customers service providers look to digital solutions. Some nations lack deep expertise and their COVID isolations preclude cross-border support. Will COVID and its many effects hamper Fin-Tech development? What will aid coherent solutions to benefit all Asian enterprises?

- Sindhu Bhaskar, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, EST Global Inc., USA
- Peter Brimble, Senior Technical Advisor, DaNa Facility, Myanmar
- Kimball Andrews, Founder, Nova Finance Group, Australia
- Tom Ludescher, Chief Executive Officer Asia & EMEA, Entsia International, Singapore
- Shachindra Nath, Executive Chairman, Ugro Capital, India

Chaired by

- Amandeep Midha, Founder, Nerd9, Denmark

Equitable Development of South-East Asia

The region comprises many big contrasts – small states and large countries, some very rich others poor, some with traditionally open economies others just emerging from years of isolation: there is no unique mode of development. What inequality, where, ought to be addressed first? Will the receiving nations most affected by COVID accept aid without feeling humbled?

- Usama Fayyad, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Open Insights, USA
- Takeshi Izuka, President, Kirirom Institute of Technology, Cambodia
- Alan Lau, President, Anglo Euro Energi Indonesia, Indonesia

Chaired by

- Ta Bich Loan, Anchor, Vietnam National Television (VTV), Vietnam

Effectively using Renewable Energy

Climate change policies see most nations moving to wind, solar and hydro; and laboratories are developing new forms like hydrogen to use directly or as an energy storage medium. How has COVID-19 interrupted the research on new forms? How to calculate predictable supply and demand for all these fuels? What is the life-cycle cost of each energy mode – and are there hidden problems with uncertain consequences?

- William Bohnett, Chairman, Smithsonian Environmental Research Center, USA
- Ruth P. Briones, Chair and Chief Executive Officer, Greenergy Solutions, The Philippines
- Sergey Demin, Chief Executive Officer, Rosatom Japan, Japan
- Ichsan Ichsan, Advisor, PT Awina Sinergi International, Indonesia
- Murthy R Nuni, Managing Director, Marshal Global Renewable Power, Vietnam

Chaired by

- Neil Bothams, Partner, nxt90days.com, Singapore

Asian Solutions for an Impact-led Recovery

The impact of COVID-19 on Asia has been enormous; however, in adversity there is opportunity. Although Asian firms and institutions are furloughed, some are seizing the moment to realign profit with social and environmental impact. Who will lead an Asian regeneration based on impact investing principles? How can Asian firms be globally integrated?

- Ken Hu, President and Chief Executive Officer, Kindwell, USA
- Daniel S. Kern, Chief Investment Officer, TFC Financial Management, USA
- Alex Manson, Chief Executive Officer, Standard Chartered Ventures, Singapore
- Helena Montgomery, Principal, Montgomery Investments, USA
- Christian Schmitz, Founder, PDIE - Purpose Driven Innovation, Japan
- Leon Toh, Executive Director, Damson Capital, Singapore

Chaired by

- Steven V. Melnik, Founder, PoliticalAndBusinessDiplomacy.org, USA

Trust in a Virtual World

The extraordinary circumstances brought about by the pandemic challenge our relationship with Trust in a world that interacts through a computer screen. How do we gain Trust, how do we maintain it, and how do we restore it when it is lost? Join us for a breakfast session that explores how we can look at Trust with fresh as conventional wisdoms are failing us and trust in media and governments are balanced on the edge of a knife.

- David W. Miller, Director Faith & Work Initiative, Princeton University, USA
- Jane Lin-Baden, Managing Partner APAC & CEO North Asia, Publicis Groupe, China
- Felipe Amaral, Global Communications & Partnerships Manager, Philip Morris International, USA

Chaired by

- Frederique Covington, Senior Vice President, Asia Pacific, Visa, Singapore

08.58-09.00 Introduction: Welcome and Overview

Horasis welcomes participants to the 2020 Horasis Asia Meeting. Prior to the outbreak of COVID-19 Asian development was uneven, then all briefly halted as supply chains broke. New solutions are needed across all nations to integrate progress and help develop new political models, and thus growth. How are leaders in business, politics and society implementing transformative change?

Introduced by

- Frank-Jürgen Richter, Chairman, Horasis, Switzerland

09.00-09.45 Opening Plenary Panels

Asia's Future – a Vision from Within

Asian countries are very diverse, but together they form the greatest growth region of the world. The UN has suggested that embracing multilateralism could be beneficial: this will become evident in the Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) signed during the recent ASEAN meeting. How will the leaders merge their precise differences to benefit the region and the world? How quickly will Asia become the dominant global force?

- Fabrizio Hochschild, Under-Secretary General, United Nations, USA
- Christopher Hui, Secretary for Financial Services and the Treasury, Hong Kong SAR
- Ramon Lopez, Secretary of Trade and Industry, The Philippines

Chaired by

- Norman Pearlstine, Executive Editor, Los Angeles Times, USA

Enhancing Asian Economic Development Post-COVID

Asian countries have been pursuing economic integration via long-term working groups: the COVID pandemic has accentuated greater cooperation. Will the new Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) be the global powerhouse of the future? Where are the strengths? How to combine different cultural viewpoints?

- Tatsuo Hatta, President, Asian Growth Research Institute, Japan
- Hank McKinnell, Chairman, Moody's, USA
- Cherie Nursalim, Vice Chair, GITI Group, Indonesia
- Paul Scanlan, Chief Transformation Officer, Huawei, China
- Tan Yinglan, Founding Managing Partner, Insignia Ventures Partners, Singapore

Chaired by

- Miki Ebara, Chief International Correspondent, NHK World, Japan

09.45-10.30 Parallel Sessions

Addressing Asia's Gender Gap

Asia is still lagging in gender equality, though individual countries vary. What does it take to alter cultural norms to uphold workplace diversity? And how to change the perceptions of home-working females due to COVID? What strategies can boost leadership of women in business, government and civil society, and tap into Asia's female talent more efficiently?

- Radhika Haribhakti, Former Chairperson, Friends of Women's World Banking (FWWB), India
- Bonnie Liao, Executive Director, Social Enterprise Research Academy Hong Kong SAR
- Dephy Oon, Chief Executive Officer, Paddee Connexions, Malaysia
- Ingrid Vanderveldt, Founder and Chair, Vanderveldt Global Investments, USA
- Deborah Wang, Chief Executive Officer, Kingdom Investment and Development, USA
- Zoe Guo, Co-founder, M-Bridge Cultural and Creative Co., China

Chaired by

- Preeti Dubey, Founder and Director, Strive High, Singapore

The Complex Geo-politics of Asia through Post-COVID

Asia comprises many cultural differences and potential antipathies: its nations have reacted differently to COVID containment. How can these differences be faced, understood and acknowledged to derive a better future for all? What are the major issues? How can businesses influence and overcome cultural hesitations?

- Victor Gao, Vice President, Center for China & Globalization, China
- Stacy Kenworthy, Chief Executive Officer, HellaStorm, USA
- Samrendra Mohan Kumar, Co-founder and Managing Director, MitKat Advisory Services, India
- Harukata Takenaka, Professor, National Graduate Institute for Policy Studies, Japan
- Katsuyuki Tochimoto, Founder, M-Theory Inc., Japan

Chaired by

- Richard Hames, Founder & Chairman, Centre for the Future, Thailand

Shaping the Future of Work Post-COVID

Robots are taking over our jobs, but many jobs require human sensibilities or hand labor. The COVID pandemic showed our versatility in moving to home-work where possible but we enjoy gathering for work and play – what will the future of work really be like? We need many different work-skills, can Asia Inc ensure we reward employees suitably?

- Rajiv Ahuja, President, Startek, India
- Mayra Andrea, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Clpta Graha Holding, Indonesia
- Rhonda Parouty, President, Empowering a Billion Women, USA
- Yoshiki Sasaki, Chief Executive Officer, Japan Strategic Capital, Japan
- Abhi Shah, Vice Chairman, Morae Global Corporation, USA

Chaired by

- Atul Temurnikar, Executive Chairman Global Schools Foundation, Singapore

Envisioning Asia's Future Digital Economy

The ways in which Asian citizens connect with others is being transformed through digital technologies despite the rigors of COVID. How to embrace technological disruption as well as maintaining a natural caution about novel solutions? And how to shape systems offering a wide-spread open navigation leading to fully digitized and integrated Asian economies?

- Kouhei Kurihara, Co-Founder, Privacy by Design Lab, Japan
- Li Haoyuan, Founder and Chairman, Alluxio, USA
- Rishi Mehra, Chief Executive Officer, Wishfin, India
- Xiaoyin Qu, Founder, Run The World, USA
- Bienca Yang, Senior Vice President, Newegg.com, USA

Chaired by

- Louis Li, Chief Executive Officer, Pacific Founder Ventures, China

The Centrality of Green Growth

The industrial revolution and its demand for energy polluted local regions yet it is a global problem, seemingly intractable: often the larger a nation's population, the more it pollutes. How are Asian nations going to meet the demands for a greener world while maintaining COVID awareness? And, conversely, what is Asia's impact on global green growth?

- Bo Inge Andersson, President, Yazaki North and Central America, Europe and Africa, USA
- Camille Levy, Chief Executive Officer Asia Pacific and China - Steam Power, GE Power
- Francis Schortgen, Professor, University of Mount Union, USA

Chaired by

- Michael Walsh, Secretary General, PBEC, Hong Kong

Revitalizing Economic Growth

With the current COVID-related economic and political uncertainties, budgets of Asian economies are going to be under stress in years to come, creating a difficult environment for economic growth. What are the key challenges that Asian economies are going to face? And what are the policy options to inspire economic recovery?

- Nicholas Johnson, Chief Executive Officer, Economists Without Borders, Australia
- Stanley Loh, Chief Executive Officer, World Capacity Builders, Canada
- Anne Nalder, Chief Executive Officer, Small Business Association of Australia, Australia
- Neelima Parasker, President and Chief Executive Officer, SnapIT Solutions, USA

Chaired by

- Worsak Kanok-Nukulchai, Executive Director, Chulalongkorn School of Integrated Innovation, Thailand

Supply and Demand: the Global COVID Economic Crisis

History reveals that most economic crises are caused by political or fiscal mismanagement, but over the first half of 2020 the COVID-19 pandemic abruptly halted all supply and demand functions. How will central bankers and governments, especially across Asia, reinvigorate their economies? Will fiscal and political stimulus be enough to return us to life as we knew it? What of the future?

- David Huang, Senior Economic Consultant, 2022 Winter Olympics, China
- Tommy Leong, Zone President, East Asia & Japan, Schneider Electric, Singapore
- Rajiv Raghunath, Chief Executive Officer, Wellversed Media, India
- Saurabh Shah, Chief Executive Officer, Universal Business and Corporate Services Centre, India

Chaired by

- Aditya Singh, Director, Athena School of Management, India

Months of Education Lost due to COVID-19

The spread of COVID-19 instantly closed many business and secondary enterprises were also furloughed. Students have to learn at home, taught by ill-equipped parents using poor technical aids: highly populated rural Asia remains poorly connected. How to regain lost teaching time? Remote learning demands dedication by students and parents - what is the answer?

- Gerald Ariff, Co-Founder, Haruka Evolusi Digital Utama, Indonesia
- Sushma Paul Berlia, President, Apeejay Styra & Svrn Group, India

Chaired by

- Shiko Hayashi, Programme Director, Kitakyushu Urban Centre, Institute for Global Environmental Strategies (IGES), Japan

Aspiring to the SDG Goals

In September 2015 all nations adopted the UN SDGs (Sustainable Development Goals) with a target in 2030. How can we ensure Asian governments and businesses devise ways to achieve the SDGs with a good outcome for the planet and human mankind while also suppressing COVID? What is the role of public-private partnerships? And how to translate the SDGs into new business models?

- Ravi Chidambaram, President and Co-Founder, TC Capital, Singapore
- Shaun Deverson, Director, Lighthouse Futures, Australia
- Jitesh Shetty, Founder, Qwiklabs (Subsidiary of Google), USA
- Nhat Vuong, Co-Founder, The Happy Turtle Straw, Switzerland
- Michael Yeoh, President, KSI Strategic Institute for Asia Pacific, Malaysia

Chaired by

- Lou Marinoff, Professor of Philosophy, The City College of New York, USA

Pivoting your Businesses

Business leaders have to come up with creative ideas to cope with a second COVID wave, or risk permanent closure: to pivot, they need to think outside the box, take risks and experiment with new business models. What are the opportunities and challenges of pivoting Asian firms when the future is uncertain? How to plan Asian firms' future post-COVID?

- Joe Hyrkin, Chief Executive Officer, Issuu, USA
- Matthew Ho, Group Chief Executive Officer, Shopper360 Group, Malaysia
- Firdaus Kharas, Chairman, Chocolate Moose Media, Canada

- Yat Siu, Co-Founder and Chairman, Animoca Brands, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Arnoud De Meyer, Professor, Singapore Management University, Singapore

Managing Funds in the Post-COVID Era

Asian Governments and their central banks have striven to boost their economies as their work forces have moved into self-isolation. This has increased global debt issuance by trillions of dollars. How will private-equity, venture capital, hedge funds, asset management, angel investments and family offices manage in post-COVID times? What concerns will they have to address initially?

- Michael Blake, Chief Executive Asia, Union Bancaire Privée, Singapore
- Rehan Chaudri, Global Investor, Peak XV Advisors, USA
- Thian Chew, Managing Partner, Polar Ventures, Hong Kong SAR

- Fred Wang, Chairman, Salon Media, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Stephen Phillips, Director General, Invest Hong Kong, Hong Kong

India's Investment Policy

Prior to COVID, India progressively moved to one of the most open policies globally on FDI. The effects associated with COVID-19 have emboldened those who are concerned about an open policy. How can the Government strike the right balance between protecting Indian industry and national security concerns, while attracting inward investment which brings knowledge, technology, jobs and upgraded infrastructure?

- Aditya Berlia, Founder, Svrn-Apeejay Journalism Foundation, India
- Girish Bhagat, Founding Partner, KnowGenix Global Technology Partners, India
- Sudha Bhushan, Co-Founder, Taxpert Professionals, India

Chaired by

- Richard Rekhy, Member of the Board, KPMG, UAE

Advancing the Fifth Industrial Revolution

Earlier industrial revolutions broke existing boundaries with creative disruption and the 5th Industrial Revolution will disrupt. Post-COVID solutions note the limits to easy growth: too little digital infrastructure investment. How might we quickly make the world better, rather than just more efficient? How can the Fifth Industrial Revolution help us beat COVID-19? Will there be any global cooperation on this matter given the US/China distrust?

- David Armitage, Chief Executive Officer, Velocity Solutions Group
- Tadahiro Kawada, President, Kawada Technologies, Japan
- Gregory Millen, Principal and Managing Director, Tailhit, New Zealand
- Frank von Seth, Chief Executive Officer, cyan AG, Austria
- Vadim Tarasov, Partner, Advanced Autonomous Solutions Fund, Hong Kong SAR

Chaired by

- Wolfgang Lehmacher, Associate Director, Corporate Value Associates, Hong Kong SAR

The Next big Global Issues and their Relevance for Asia

The science of COVID will soon be understood and its resurgence checked by vaccines. But what else does the world face? Climate change, pollution, and food/water shortages remain to be solved. Diversity and the world's financial model need to be revised. What will be addressed first? By whom – perhaps by an emergent Asia?

- Parag Agarwal, Founder and CEO, JanaJal, Singapore
- Pranav Bhanage, Chief Executive Officer, Petronas Lubricant (India), India
- Armen Orujyan, Founding Chief Executive Officer, Foundation for Armenian Science and Technology, Armenia

- Alec Wang, Founder and President, Tana Investment Group, USA

Chaired by

- Niraj Sharan, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, Aura, USA

On Being Vigilant Against a New Cold War

The US and China seem intent on mutually escalating their trade friction by widening their restrictive scope: so far, irrevocable actions have not been taken. This is a geopolitical gamble - how to prevent a new cold war? How can global governments press for greater stability between the superpowers? What means of dialogue and engagement are feasible?

- Craig Allen, President, US-China Business Council, USA
 - Michael Johnston, Member of the Board, The Capital Group Companies, USA
 - Charles Tang, President, Brazil China Chamber of Commerce, Brazil
 - Wang Huiyao, Founder & President, Center for China & Globalization, China

- Chaired by*
- Donny Huang, Founder and Managing Director, 4stones, China

The Greening of Blockchain

Bitcoins have to be created before use in Blockchains: both are dependent on massive computing power creating heavy pollution, but which will work alone independent of COVID. However, via the supposition of linking producers and consumers, we can attach Bitcoins to new digital markets. What is needed from governments to permit new crypto-market places? Is it a fantasy or a future realism? What new technologies may be needed?

- Marta F. Belcher, Partner, Ropes & Gray, USA
 - Mario Alberto Casiraghi, Chief Finance and Strategy Office, Xfinite, United Arab Emirates
 - Sandeep Gulati, Chief Executive Officer and Founder, Vialogy Corp, USA
 - Valmiki Mukherjee, Chairman and Founder, Cyber Future Foundation, USA

12.00-12.45 Plenary Panels

Asia: United in Diversity

Asia is one of the most diverse regions in the world, with a dizzying array of cultural, linguistic, religious and ethnic heterogeneity. Asian nations also vary significantly in economic development and population size. What are the benefits of cultural pluralism in Asia? How to find a common goal to unite a culturally diverse continent, especially in times of the COVID pandemic? And how to turn diversity into a competitive advantage?

- Suresh Kumar, Chief Principal Secretary, State of Punjab, India
- Nguyen Minh Vu, Vice Minister of Foreign Affairs, Vietnam

- Venky Vembu, Associate Editor, The Hindu BusinessLine, India

Asia and Global Economic Outlook: looking beyond COVID

Prior to the COVID-19 pandemic the US and China successively raised their trade barriers which damaged many tiers of the supply chains: COVID further disrupted these chains. A technical solution to COVID will be found, will the new Regional Comprehensive Economic Partnership (RCEP) do likewise for trade? How will the 15 Asia-Pacific nations cooperate to increase trade to benefit their commercial and political goals? Will Asian firms reach out to the rest of the world to lift mutually beneficial trade?

- Ben Goertzel, Chief Executive Officer, SingularityNET, Hong Kong SAR
- Roger King, Founder and Chairman, ODS Holdings Inc., Hong Kong
- George Li, Founder and Managing Partner, Bridge Biohub, China

12.45-13.30 Plenary Panels

China and its New Economy

Following the outbreak of COVID-19 first noted in Wuhan, the Chinese economy is rising once more. Its rapid response to the novelty of COVID with no immediate treatment mode was exemplary, and it has formed a model for other nations. How will its global power grow over the next year? Or next decade, as logistics chains are reborn?

- James Kynge, Global China Editor, Financial Times and Editor, #techAsia, Hong Kong SAR
- David Pan, Executive Dean, Schwarzman College, Tsinghua University, China
